PICK YOUR PERSONALITY

EFFECTIVE INTERACTIONS WITH COWORKERS

Course Description:
Personalities. So unique and so different. We need them all. Have you ever wondered why some people can handle certain situations easily and other people stumble over their words in a similar situation? Are you often envious of others who can find just the right things to say at just the right time to defuse a difficult situation? We need all different types of personalities to provide to balance to our day. Each person models to those we teach that it is acceptable to be yourself. Attend this learning event to identify different personality types indicated in an online personality assessment and select appropriate responses in workplace scenarios based on personality strengths.
